

JOIN IAQ

to shape our industry and strengthen your network

Be part of the IAQ team building meaningful industry partnerships that enhance the way our industry works. IAQ is an independent association with a respected voice, influencing good project outcomes and sector reform. IAQ effectively brings public and private organisations closer together for a stronger and more sustainable Queensland. We achieve this in four main ways:

ENGAGEMENT

IAQ is influencing better outcomes for our members with timely engagement on important issues and policy with all levels of government. We have access to the decision makers and foster collaboration. Our inter-agency and industry working groups focus on: risk, delivery, procurement, pipeline, innovation and productivity - with charter for reform and action. We work closely with organisations to understand private investment drivers, barriers and opportunities.

NETWORKING

We host diverse and interactive events, creating forums for sharing, connecting and professional development. Co-creating events with our members, we ensure our focus is where you want it to be. Joining IAQ means you can network with industry decision makers, and be closer to your existing and new clients. Our members receive special discounted rates to all events and exclusive invitations to our Boardroom Series.

KNOWLEDGE

We help create a sustainable industry for Queenslanders. Our Taskforces undertake relevant research, generously sharing knowledge and information across our networks. We look to the future of infrastructure with a focus on utilising data and developing smart solutions.

ADVOCACY

IAQ is an independent and respected voice that is united and strong. We are highly regarded as evidenced based and influential in policy debates. Plus, we champion early and genuine engagement with communities, our ultimate clients.

"A successful, effective Australian infrastructure sector must be supported by effective collaboration. IAQ brings a strong and welcome focus to bringing together the QLD sector and supporting national best practice."

Peter Colacino, Chief of Policy and Research at Infrastructure Australia

"IAQ champion the big issues that really matter in infrastructure. Port of Brisbane is a major economic driver for Queensland; IAQ understands this and are vocal in support of vital infrastructure connectivity. IAQ helps Queensland productivity by ensuring our challenges and opportunities are raised with government. Together we create a stronger Queensland."

Peter Keyte, Chief Operating Officer, Port of Brisbane Pty Ltd

"IAQ is a valued partner informing our planning and delivery of infrastructure for Queensland by strengthening the partnerships between industry, government and community."

Rachel Hunter, Under Treasurer, Queensland Treasury

EMBRACING THE FUTURE OF INFRASTRUCTURE

IAQ is passionate about ensuring the next generation have a say in how we advance and adapt our industry. So, we have created a platform - Emerging Professionals in Infrastructure Queensland (EPIQ). EPIQ is a vital and growing part of IAQ.

"IAQ provides a great opportunity to connect with the broader infrastructure industry across all disciplines. It allows members to have input into the current and emerging key issues and provides an avenue for young professionals to connect with peers and establish their own networks."

Reece Edwards, Partner,
Corporate Finance, BDO

"EPIQ provides a platform for the next generation of infrastructure professionals to engage in collaborative and constructive conversations with others in the industry. I enjoy our topical conversations and learning about the challenges and opportunities we all see in the industry and share our experiences. EPIQ also has great exposure to IAQ senior members, and I find they are strong supporters and advocates of our group and engage with us regularly."

Jacqueline Pizzey, Senior Advisor, Media and Communications, Cross River Rail Delivery Authority
